

COURSE OVERVIEW

PCP-101, Foundations, will be delivered in the classroom setting using an interactive, student centered blend of lecture and group discussion formats. In foundations, we will introduce students to the Paramedic's most fundamental roles and responsibilities to patient and to self as well as their ethical and legal obligations.

Specific topics include: EMS systems, roles & responsibilities, the well being of the Paramedic, illness & injury prevention, medicolegal issues, ethical issues, human development, and patient communication

MEETING TIMES & INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

In-class sessions (virtual when warranted)

Lecture/Group Discussion: Mondays 15:00 – 16:30

Total hours: 12

REQUIRED MATERIALS & PREREQUISITES

Class Materials

Students will be expected to come to class prepared to take notes and to complete in-class activities. Instructors may also specify the use of mobile phones and laptops for some activities.

Support website: Materials related to PCP-101 such as in-class presentations & assignments will be available for student access on this website. Academy faculty does not authorize the posting of PCP-101 materials on other sites. Each student is responsible for his/her own learning which includes staying current with postings on the Omni Life Support website.

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: PCP-105, PCP-107, PCP-112, PCP-113, PCP-116, PCP-117,

PCP-119, & PCP-11PT

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon successful completion of this course, it is expected that students will have gained sufficient knowledge and skill to effectively employ such soft skills as communication, stress management, teamwork and decision-making in a professional and ethical manner when performing their duties as a Paramedic. By the end of the course, the student will be able to:

- Describe the roles and responsibilities of a Paramedic working in an EMS system
- List components of a Paramedic's well-being and strategies to remain healthy and well
- List helpful methods for dealing with the everyday stresses experienced by working Paramedics
- Describe strategies that can be employed for injury prevention
- Explain the medicolegal implications of responding to emergencies and rendering care as a Paramedic
- Recognize potential ethical conundrums and explain how a Paramedic may choose to navigate the situation from an ethics perspective
- List the phases of human development and describe attributes unique to each phase
- List strategies that can influence effective patient communication
- Explain how to conduct an effective patient interview

INTENDED LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Learning objectives for PCP-101 are guided by the National Occupational Competency Profiles (NOCP) for Paramedics. Each objective, indicated by the prefix "O", is linked to the corresponding NOCP sub-competency with the matching alpha-numerical code (e.g., O1.1.a is the learning objective tied to sub-competency 1.1.a of the NOCP for Paramedics). As per the NOCP guidelines for Paramedics, to succeed in this course, you must demonstrate competence in the following areas.

Learning Objectives	Embedded Knowledge and Skills

EXPECTATIONS & TIPS FOR SUCCESS

Academic Standards and Workload: Appropriate professional tone is expected on all student submissions and examinations. This is to help build strong professional practice skills.

A typical PCP course should require 1-2 hours per week of out-of-class work. This time may vary depending on how quickly you read and comprehend assigned course materials.

Classroom Protocol: Students are expected to be courteous and respectful of others, and mindful that a classroom is a shared working space with the primary goal of learning course material.

Unnecessary distractions are too be minimized – that includes turning off cell phones and other distracters during lectures unless permission has been granted by the instructor.

Tardiness is strongly discouraged as it is in the Paramedic workplace. If for some reason you arrive late, please wait and enter the class during break.

Unless otherwise notified by the class instructor, attendance to all classes is mandatory. Absences will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis.

Deadlines and Late Penalties: Course deliverables submitted after the due date will be assigned a grade of zero (0). This penalty may be waived at the discretion of the instructor in the event of extraordinary or special circumstances (with supporting verification/documentation).

Class Participation: A student's participation will be graded out of 100 (representing 20% of the overall course mark). Each student will receive quarterly participation mark of "25" (reasonable attempt to participate) or "0" (no reasonable attempt made).

Absence Due to Special Circumstances or Illness: Let the instructor know in advance if you need to be away due to special circumstances. If the event conflicts with class examinations, verification of the reason for absence will be required.

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the OLS Academy community are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Communication Methods: Most communications regarding PCP-101 will be done during class sessions. Special announcements will be posted on the OLS Academy website. Emails sent to students will be sent from academy@omnilifesupport.com. Students can email the instructor at joel.mattatall@omnilifesupport.com with the intended recipient's name in the subject line.

This outline is subject to change at the discretion of academy administrators.
